

The below has been circulating the net for some weeks now. I ran it past Snopes which determined it to be mostly false. You can view it here <http://www.snopes.com/politics/business/organic.asp>

However, having read some of the bill, I would say that our representatives need to write a preamble specifically stating to just whom this bill applies. A statement in plain laymen terms stating that the bill applies only to farms or ranches who generate over some dollar value, I've read a suggestion of $500,000.00, and ships their products across state lines. While reading the bill I saw where it was so general that it could be left up to interpretation. I thought we can trust our representatives... then I came out of my self-induced stupor and realized there must be an exclusion statement at the very introduction of the bill. You can read the bill in its entirety here http://www.washingtonwatch.com/bills/show/111\_HR\_875.html

If this bothers you, you may reach your representatives here <https://writerep.house.gov/writerep/welcome.shtml>